

Mr. Kohei Onozaki

Board Member , Health and Global Policy Institute

Mr. Onozaki has experience working in marketing and sales at Johnson and Johnson, and as Vice President of Corporate Affairs (Legal, Communications, and Health Policy) at AstraZeneca. After joining Health and Global Policy Institute (HGPI) on 2007, he engaged in many policy projects in various roles including Health Policy Director, President, and has served as a Board Member from 2014. He serves as Special Advisor on Health Policy for the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare (MHLW), and has served for several health minister's advisory panels including Secretary General of Health Care 2035 Advisory Panel, and Data Health Reform Advisory Group. He holds BA in Law from Hosei University in Tokyo and earned MS in Health Policy and Management from Harvard University, School of Public Health.